

Programme PHD-DVP 903

19-21 October 2020

19 October

Time frame 10.00-17.00.

10.00-12.00

Introduction – characteristics of qualitative research design.

Diversity of qualitative research design: paradigms and research strategies.

By Marta Struminska-Kutra, FTDL VID Oslo

12.45-14.30

Relationship between theory and empirical data – manoeuvring between induction, deduction and abduction. By Torgeir Sørensen, SDP VID and Marta Struminska-Kutra

Designing Research as Creating a Chain of Evidence: connecting goal to questions, methods, data sources, analysis and conclusions. By Torgeir Sørensen and Marta Struminska-Kutra

14.45-16.30

Exemplifying diversity of approaches:

Ethnography: doing ethnography in human services. By Aleksandra Bartoszko, Faculty of Social Studies VID

Narratives: diary method in dementia research. By Ruth Bartlett, Faculty of Health Studies VID Oslo

20 October

Time frame 9.00-17.00.

Exemplifying diversity of approaches:

9.00-11:30

Participatory research: developmental projects. By Maria Guzmán-Gallagos, FTDL VID

Phenomenology. By To be announced

12:15-14:30

Grounded theory. By Tove Giske, Faculty of Health Studies VID Bergen

Case-studies: organization studies. By Marta Struminska-Kutra

14:45-16:30

Group sessions

21 October

Time frame 9.00-15.00

9.00-11:30

Methods of analysis – moving between theory and empirical data. Practicalities - exemplifying analysis with the use of coding software (NVivo):

Organizing compassion – organizational values in health care. By Gry Espedal, FTDL VID Oslo

Diversity management in nursing homes. By Tone Lindheim, FTDL VID Oslo

12:15-13:45

Group session

14:00-15:00

Generalizations and qualitative research. By Torgeir Sørensen and Marta Struminska-Kutra

15.00

Closing